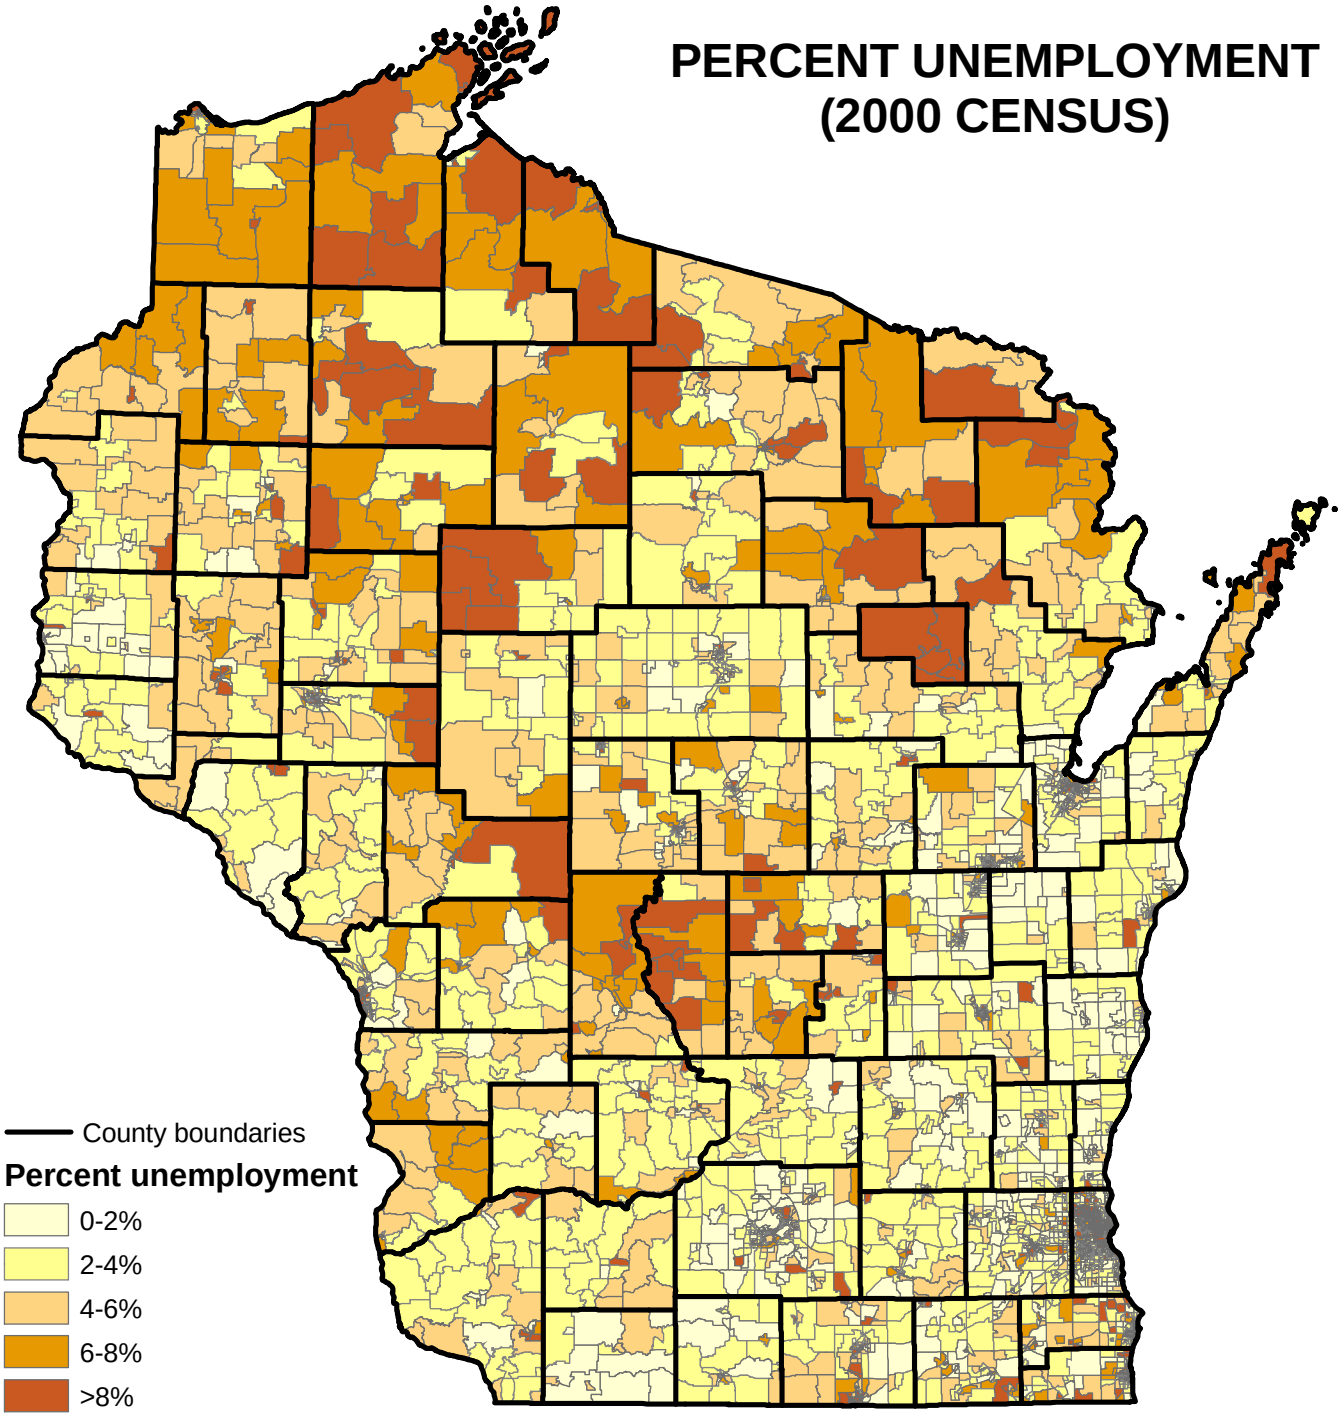
PERCENT UNEMPLOYMENT (2000 CENSUS)



N

40 20 0 40 80 Miles

Wisconsin Transverse Mercator Projection
NAD 83(91)
Scale 1:2,750,000

Map created by Sally Dahir, April 2003

Block group data, from the US Census Bureau, is based on sampled data from the 2000 decennial census. The SF3 data is distributed by the Office of Land Information Services (OLIS).

Block groups represent a cluster of census blocks which are bounded by visible features. They contain between 600 and 3,000 people, with an optimal size of 1,500 inhabitants.