From:	Brooke Bowser
To:	DNR Racine Diversion Comments
Subject:	Public Comment on Foxconn Water Diversion
Date:	Tuesday, March 20, 2018 11:07:39 PM

The Great Lakes Compact is quite clear--the water removed from the lakes shall be returned. It is a simple matter of balance, but it is apparently one that has also been forgotten. Allowing this diversion action is extremely inappropriate and against the compact that was created in order to maintain a healthy environment. Instead, this plan would ignore the pains of the community and the potentially destructive effects. The regulations are clear and necessary. and there is no reason to stray from them.

Brooke Bowser