DNR:

I strongly object to any diversion for the use of Great Lakes water. Water is life. We all should care that this vital resource is preserved for our children, grandchildren and succeeding generations.

Please consider this poem written by Chief Dan George (1899-1981) of the Tsleil-Waututh Nation in Vancouver, Canada and the legacy you will leave with your decision about the Great Lakes diversion:

Have I done all to keep the air fresh?
Have I cared enough
about the water?
Have I left the eagle
to soar in freedom?
Have I done everything
I could to earn my grandchild's fondness?

Thank you.
