From:	David Baum
To:	DNR Racine Diversion Comments
Subject:	Foxconn diversion
Date:	Tuesday, March 20, 2018 9:06:15 PM

Simply put, clean fresh water is vital. I am concerned about the potential lost volume and degraded water quality due to the proposed Foxconn factory. The DNR is the agency to protect state citizens from these potential problems. It must not cut corners or allow unrestrained use by any state business. Fresh clean water is not free. And, we need it!
Respectfully,
David Baum
2947 N Stowell Ave.
Milw., WI 53211

Sent from my iPhone