Chair Cole requested Rob Bohmann, WCC Executive Director, to the podium and asked for WCC’s position.

Mr. Bohmann stated WCC supports the rule proposal with statewide results.

Discussion followed on whether an attendee at the spring hearings could vote no on Question 1 – allow trolling statewide and whether this question could be read at the meeting.

Tim Simonson, Fisheries Staff Specialist, read Question 1: “Do you favor this compromise trolling proposal, which would allow trolling with 1 “line” (i.e. hook, bait, or lure) per angler in the 17 counties listed above (except the 31 waters already open to trolling) and would allow trolling with 3 “lines” per angler in the other 55 counties?”

Discussion followed on the 11 counties that did not support this proposal and that the way the questions were constructed is a continuing issue. Questions need to be very distinct in the future; and not include two or three items.

Discussion followed on fish population and impact on the body of water relative to the rule, whether there is a negative impact of approving the proposed rule excluding Vilas and Iron counties, whether this is a local vs. statewide issue, and what the Board’s options are for action on this item.

Tim Andryk, Chief Legal Counsel, stated that the Board has the following options for action: 1) approve as recommended; 2) approve with modifications such as excluding counties; and 3) not approve. He stated another option is to take another proposal out to hearing.

Discussion followed on the department’s data collection for trolling, and that this is a social issue.

Mr. Bohmann offered a five year sunset as a compromise.
Discussion followed on the concerns brought up by a number of speakers of the potential number of lines per boat and whether this should be restricted per boat such as four lines per boat and one line per person.

Mr. Hilgenberg MOVED to amend the proposed rule to exclude Vilas and Oneida counties from trolling. The motion failed due to the lack of a second.

Discussion followed on whether the WCC fisheries committee should discuss trolling at their district meeting.

Secretary Stepp stated this is a very interesting process and that there is a need to be mindful to the public. Going only with biological is not always the right way to go.

Mr. Bruins MOVED, seconded by Mr. Kazmierski to sunset the rule in three years (May 2017-2018). The motion to sunset the rule passed unanimously.

Mr. Kazmierski MOVED to restrict the lines per boat to three, seconded by Mr. Bruins. The motion failed on a roll call vote of 2 – 5.

Discussion followed on whether the lines per person and per boat should be reduced and how many years it will take the department to complete the study.

Ms. Wiley MOVED to limit trolling to 2 lines per boat for all waters that currently have 1 line, seconded by Mr. Hilgenberg. Dr. Thomas asked the authors to add to their motion to limit trolling to 1 line per person. Ms. Wiley and Mr. Hilgenberg agreed. The motion to amend the lines per person and per boat carried unanimously.

Discussion followed on whether an amendment should be brought forward exempting Vilas and Iron counties from the pilot [no] and that the rules process is about getting input through WCC and about working out compromises. This is how the system is supposed to work.

The original rule as amended carried unanimously.

Chair Cole clarified that the rule goes into effect in 2015 and that the sunset would be May 2018. In addition, it is the intent of the authors of the rule that no more than one hook, bait, or lure per line be used. The Board agreed.
Chief Warden Todd Schaller asked to clarify that if a boater has three lines, he/she can fast cast with two and have one being used for trolling. The Board agreed.

3.B.2. Request adoption of Emergency Board Order ER-31-13(E) and Board Order ER-30-13, proposed rules affecting chapters NR 10, 16, 19, 21, 22, and 27 related to the addition of the Blanding’s turtle to the State’s Protected Wild Animal list, possession exemptions, and turtle seasons and limits and to updating scientific and common names and federal listing status

Dr. Thomas MOVED approval, seconded by Mr. Kazmierski of the department’s recommendations.

Discussion followed on whether this rule would affect construction projects [no]. The motion carried unanimously.

3.B.3. Request approval of department recommendations for the 2014 deer hunting season structure including antlerless quotas, antlerless permit levels, and configuration of the CWD affected area

Discussion followed on how Marinette County with a split forest would be managed, how that compares to last year’s quotas in forest areas, and the breakdown of damage; the status of formulating county committees; and farmland zone tags.

Mr. Bohmann stated that the Big Game Committee met and voted in support of the proposal.

Public Appearances:
1. Ralph Fritsch, Townsend, representing Wisconsin Wildlife Federation. He spoke in support of “0” antlerless quota in 19 counties, and addressed concerns of private/public lands permits and that the proposed regulations do little to control the spread of CWD in the state. (Handout)
2. Mike Brust, Wausau, representing Wisconsin Bowhunters Association (WBA). He stated that WBA strongly supports “0” antlerless in the north this year. He also had concerns about tracking the wounded onto public/private lands. He asked that law-abiding hunters not be put in a position they do not want to be in.

Chair Cole asked Chief Warden Schaller and Kevin Wallenfang to the podium to respond to the tracking of wounded deer concern.

Mr. Wallenfang, Big Game Specialist, stated this is not a new situation. Having a private land deer tag does not give a hunter a free ticket to hunt on private lands.
You must have permission to retrieve deer. The landowner has the right to say no.

Chief Warden Schaller stated they would get the message out to hunters. Their primary focus is education of the rule change and to understand that people need to understand. He has confidence they will do so.

Discussion followed on how this would work on Managed Forest Land (MFL), and whether the department’s atlas is updated.

Secretary Stepp stated that people should still verify and reach out to prospective landowners.

Discussion followed on the burden of proof a hunter needs to have where the deer was shot and downed for tagging.

Secretary Stepp recognized Kurt Thiede, Tom Hauge, Kevin Wallenfang, and team and thanked them for the professionalism of their team and to the public that responded.

Mr. Kazmierski MOVED approval, seconded by Mr. Zimmer of the department’s recommendations. The motion carried unanimously.

She gave an update regarding the Northern Long-Eared Bat. She stated that the department understands the challenges that the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service faces in coordinating the input of all the affected states and has offered to coordinate the formation of a technical team with national representation to develop conservation measures, and other implementation tools such as a species status assessment, an interim HCP or state specific conservation strategies.
Dr. Thomas stated that she has asked to have this issue added to the Wildlife and Hunting Heritage Conservation Council agenda.

Secretary Stepp was pleased to announce that the department has secured the Healthy Forest Restoration Act (HFRA) designation for Chequamegon-Nicolet National Forest. 7. Board Members’ Matters

Mr. Kazmierski stated that during the WCC convention, he talked to some of the youth delegates and asked what their friends and peers think of them hunting. Some interesting things came out from their youthful perspective. Up north was more tolerant. In the south and particularly with girls, it was intolerant. We have not done a good job of getting the message out for decades or even longer on this whole concept. They are taught that hunting was the reason why the buffalo almost disappeared when it was recreational hunting that saved the bison and down the line. To follow that up, they spoke with some teachers that were at the convention. They suggested the department look into the 4th grade school history curriculum on Aldo Leopold to get that message out on the conservation circle. He was not sure where to go with this.

Chair Cole responded to Mr. Kazmierski that we have the right people in the room so this is a great place to start.

Dr. Thomas stated that the department should be proud. On May 3, 2014, former employee Clifford Germain, was inducted into the Conservation Hall of Fame.

Mr. Kazmierski MOVED, seconded by Mr. Zimmer to adjourn the meeting. The motion carried unanimously.
