Pursuant to Section 299.83, Wis. Veolia ES Technical Solutions provides stabilization services, repackaging, solidification and household collection of hazardous wastes. Their operations are focused on minimizing the volume and toxicity of waste generated by themselves and others. Internally, they have incorporated numerous recycling programs into their processes. For customers' waste, they are dedicated to continually seeking beneficial reuse and recycling options, including the reuse of certain chemical wastes for fuel-blending and wastewater treatment, as well as a household waste redistribution center for reusable hazardous materials. Upon joining Green Tier, Veolia ES Technical Solutions will continue to systematically pursue alternative recycling and treatment options through the implementation of an Environmental Management System.
