

File# FI 1438 – Langlade County - 43.9 acres

The Department acquired this property for $23,700 in 1980. An unnamed spring pond is located on this property totaling approximately 4 acres in size, with an unnamed trout stream that runs through the southwest portion of the property. The Department has made investments in the property including beaver control, boundary posting and property inspections. This also is a potential future site for spring pond dredging.

The property is accessible by the public through Stone Lake Road. Recreation uses of the property include fishing, hunting, trapping, sightseeing and hiking. This property is adjacent to County forest lands to the north and other Department properties to the south.

The Department recommends retaining this parcel.
