2004-2005 Snowmobile Program Report
Summary

The 2004-2005 Snowmobile Program Report was compiled from the 38 fatal investigations and other data collected during the fiscal year (a fiscal year runs from July 1 – June 30).

Conservation Wardens investigate all fatal snowmobile incidents and as such, Wisconsin law requires that a conservation warden or law enforcement officer be notified immediately of any snowmobile incident that results in an injury requiring medical treatment by a physician. In addition, the operator(s) involved in these reportable incidents must file a written report with the Department of Natural Resources within 10 days, in so far as they are capable of doing so.

FATAL INCIDENT CAUSES

The primary type of crash causing the victim's death continues to be striking a fixed object such as trees or ice/rock. The secondary type of crash leading to the victim's death this reporting period was falling through the ice, with collision with another snowmobile or truck. The leading contributing factors were alcohol and excessive speed.

There were 28 (12 the previous year) fatal crashes that investigators directly identified speed as a contributing factor to the death of the operator/passenger. Of the 28 speed related fatalities, 20 of those that died had consumed alcohol or 72% (75% the previous year) of the speed related victims.

Alcohol was identified as another major contributing factor. The law expressly states a person is under the influence of alcohol once their blood alcohol level reaches 0.08; however, for the purposes of this report, any alcohol level identified in the coroner's report (by percent) is considered to be a contributing factor.

Seventy-four percent (28 of the victims) of the known toxicology reports performed show alcohol was consumed by the victim. Toxicology examinations were not performed on two victims; eight victims had no alcohol present. A review of the alcohol involved fatalities show that no victims had less than 0.03 alcohol levels. Seven percent of the victims that consumed alcohol showed levels less than .08%. Thirty-Two percent of the victims that consumed alcohol had levels from 0.08 to 0.199%. The other thirty-two percent of the alcohol related victims were reported at 0.20 or above, with one victim result at 0.271.

WHO WAS INVOLVED

Thirty-four of the 38 victims were male. Victim ages ranged from 5-66 years, with the average age 34 years old; last season's average age was 35 years. The largest percentage of victims was age 30-39 years with 39%. The second largest age group was age 21-29 years at 22%. Three children under 16 were killed this reporting period. Of the 38 fatal incidents, 30 of the victims were Wisconsin residents while 4 were from Illinois, 2 from Minnesota, and 1 from Iowa. The majority of the victims (23) had not received Wisconsin Snowmobile Safety Training. Of the 38 victims, 35 were known to have been wearing a helmet, 3 were not wearing a helmet.

WHEN DO THE FATAL INCIDENTS OCCUR

A correlation was observed by reviewing fatality statistics for the past ten years. Inferences can be drawn as to the time of day and the day of the week that fatal incidents are most likely to occur. Statistics show the majority of the snowmobilers were fatally injured on Friday, Saturday or Sunday. Saturdays show a higher number of victims over any other day. The time of day/night that snowmobilers are most likely to be involved in a deadly incident is between the hours of 7:00 pm - 3:00 am.

Percent of Victims Killed Showing Alcohol as a Contributing Factor

History of Snowmobile Fatalities
