

COMMUNITY EMERALD ASH BORER WORKSHOP (EAB 2.0)

Not your average emerald ash borer workshop, the community emerald ash borer workshop presented by The Morton Arboretum will provide you with unique perspectives, case studies from actual communities, and resources needed to engage your community! Please join us for this unusual educational opportunity to learn how to manage emerald ash borer in your community.

Date: Friday, October 26, 2012

Time: 9:00am – 2:00pm

Where: College of Lake County; Building C,
Lower Level Conference Room C003, Grayslake, IL

Cost: $15 dollars per attendee

Limited Space Available; 4 IAA & .4 IPRA CEUs Available

Registration: The Morton Arboretum Registrar at 630-719-2468 or email, registrar-ed@mortonarb.org

Details: Lunch included along with hands-on activities and additional take-home resources!

- ❖ Community Stories: Details from City of Madison, WI; Village of Wauconda, IL and more...
- ❖ Increasing Community and Council Engagement: How to increase awareness and funding for EAB within your community, presented by various city administrators, trustees, city foresters and non-profits...
- ❖ Latest Research Provided by Cliff Sadof of Purdue University: Management options, insecticide research and more...
- ❖ Applicable Resources for Any Size Community

Co-Sponsored by: Society of Municipal Arborists, Illinois Park and Recreation Association, Southern Illinois University, APHIS, & the Illinois Department of Agriculture