

Fall Forces of Nature

By Linda Davis

Amazingly lush and vibrant colored trees at every turn

Mighty force of water spillage on numerous waterfalls and caves

Peaceful serenity of hidden lakes and boat ramps

Evening offered torrential rains/winds at Memorial Park campsite in Washburn

Morning sunrise offered ever changing bright orange and blue rays over Lake Superior

Was the beauty of the morning glow a result of the wicked evening skies?