DIRECTIONS TO DESTINATIONS WITHIN THE KETTLE MORAINÉ STATE FOREST

SOUTHERN UNIT

Attention:

First time visitors to the Kettle Moraine State Forest-Southern Unit often find it a confusing place to navigate. Unlike many parks that have one "entrance", the Southern Unit is 30 miles from one end to the other, with many trail heads and campgrounds. Make sure you know your destination before heading to the forest!

The staff at the Southern Unit also DOES NOT recommend the use of computerized mapping software to obtain directions to the forest. While it works sometimes, there is more often undesirable results and many unhappy campers!

Therefore we've put together this handout with reliable directions from many destinations. If you require further assistance with your travels to the forest, please don't hesitate to call us.

Keep in mind that the Contact Stations at Ottawa Lake and Whitewater Lake Campgrounds are seasonal offices with varying hours. The Forest Headquarters is the main administrative office as well as the Museum and Gift Shop.
