1. Work*Play*Earth*Day – Volunteer Work Days in the State Parks.

With more people preparing to explore and enjoy Wisconsin this year, the State Park System is going to be busy! The Friends of Wisconsin State Parks are organizing a series of volunteer work days at the places listed below so that you can give back to the parks, forests, and trails that you love! Join local Friends groups, DNR staff, and people from your community for some hands-on work to protect, preserve, and prepare the parks and forests for a busy season.

Volunteer Day Schedule:

Saturday, April 25:

- Mirror Lake State Park (Baraboo)
- Governor Dodge State Park (Dodgeville)
- Lake Kegonsa State Park (Madison)
- Wyalusing State Park (Prairie du Chien)

Saturday, May 2:

- Hartman Creek State Park (Waupaca)
- Lake Wissota State Park (Chippewa Falls)
- Kettle Moraine State Forest- Northern Unit (Fond du Lac)

Saturday, May 9:

- Perrot State Park (LaCrosse)
- Buckhorn State Park (Necedah)
- Copper Falls State Park (Ashland)

Lunch and snacks will be served at each location. Each work day will be from 9:30am-3:30pm. Advanced registration is free, but required. Please bring gloves and boots. All work will be light duty and organized.

For more information or to register, contact Luthien Niland at (608) 264-8994 or luthien.niland@wisconsin.gov. Please include in your registration email:
