

Stories from the Shore

Remember paddling down a tranquil stream, fishing with grandpa, or spending a fire lit evening with someone we love letting the nature of the shoreline enhance the moment? Unexplainable and yet unforgettable are these times. The times are so vivid that we still remember the sights, sounds and smells. One thing is almost always part of the unforgettable times, the shoreline.

Enjoy the stories, poems, pictures, and times that are shared inside. Additionally, when you share our "Wading a Little Deeper" and "Quick Clips" you may even learn more about the things that make the water's edge so amazing. 126 pages, 2007.
