
Light blue polygons indicate suitable elk habitat. The dark blue line is the boundary of the original Clam Lake elk range. The red line is the boundary of the expanded elk range that was added in December 2012. The bright green line is the boundary of the Jackson County elk range