

Wisconsin Waterways Commission

Authority: ss. 15.345\(1\) and 30.92, Wis. Stats.; ch. NR 7, Wis. Adm. Code

PURPOSE: Wisconsin Waterways Commission (appointed by the governor with senate consent): Roger Walsh (Inland area), chairperson; Ralph Brzezinski (Lake Superior area), Bruce Neeb (Mississippi River area), Janeau Allman (Lake Michigan area), and Donna Kempf (Lake Winnebago watershed).

The 5-member Wisconsin Waterways Commission was created by Chapter 274, Laws of 1977. Its members serve staggered 5-year terms, and each must represent a specific geographic area and be knowledgeable about the area's recreational water use problems. The Commission approves financial aid to local governments for development of recreational boating projects, including the acquisition of weed harvesters; and recommend administrative rules for the recreational facilities boating program.
