(For Hearing Officer completion)

Ecocide (as in the killing of the nature of a place).

The specific act of ecocide (as in the killing of the nature of a place) is not classified as a criminal act in Wisconsin. Causing widespread, long-term damage to the natural environment by substantially damaging or destroying ecosystems harms the health and well-being of all species, including humans. Ecocide is a historic and contemporary immoral act that should be criminalized and stopped

Would you recognize that "ecocide" (the killing of the Nature of a place) is a wrong immoral act that should be criminalized and stopped?
