

Citizen Resolution # 030222

(For Hearing Officer completion)

Ban Coyote Killing Contests

Coyote killing contests promote and reward indiscriminate killing of the species with the use of calls, traps, hounds, and high-tech tools. 70+ Wisconsin contests, most all targeting coyote, have been identified via tavern fliers and social media; the annual Moondog Madness being the largest. Petitions, billboards, LTEs, and more recently undercover contest footage have raised public awareness and support for ending these events. In response, organizers now operate in secret using private forums, code words, undisclosed weigh-in locations, and virtual video check ins. Cash and prizes, including weapons, award teams killing the most, biggest, smallest, ugliest etc. coyote. A ban on contests would not impact lethal take of coyote for livestock protection, or any form of hunting including fishing derbies and "Big Buck" competitions. The DNR does not monitor/regulate contests and have not released any statement supporting contests. Wanton cruelty and waste, and illegal disposal of carcasses on public l

Do you support the Conservation Congress advising the WDNR to seek a legislative ban on coyote killing contests?
