

Key 2017–2018 Accomplishments for John Motoviloff, Wisconsin R3 Coordinator for the National Wild Turkey Federation

Hunt for Food & Fishing for Dinner Programming

- Coordinated and conducted 5 Hunt for Food courses
- Coordinated and conducted 3 Fishing for Dinner courses
- Coordinated and conducted 5 follow-up skills trainings—i.e., Rabbit, Squirrel, Pheasant
- Administered and evaluated surveys to class participants

Partner Training in North American Model and Outdoor Recreation Adoption Model (ORAM)

- Conducted trainings with the following organizations: Aldo Leopold Foundation, Mississippi Valley Conservancy, Becoming an Outdoors Woman, Wisconsin Wildlife Federation, Midwest Outdoor Heritage and Education Center, Badger Hunt Club, Trout Unlimited, National Wild Turkey Federation, Pheasants Forever, Ruffed Grouse Society, Ducks Unlimited
- Partnered with the following organizations in R3 programming: US Fish and Wildlife Service, Iowa DNR, Minnesota DNR, Illinois DNR, Viroqua Food Coop, Driftless Angler Fly Shop, Hawkeye Fly Fishers, Quality Deer Management Association, Feather Ridge Game Farm, Westby Rod and Gun Club, Badgerland Pheasant Farm

Communications

- Created Instructors and Trainers Guides for Hunt for Food program
- Developed virtual mentor training materials in conjunction with Pheasants Forever staff
- Wrote feature articles on R3 in National Wild Turkey Federation, Trout Unlimited, Wisconsin Natural Resources, and Outdoor News publications
- Gave presentations on R3 at National Wild Turkey Federation, Pheasants Forever, and Wisconsin Hunter Education Association conventions
- Wrote monthly wild game column and created R3 section on National Wild Turkey Federation–Wisconsin website
- Provided editorial and promotional assistance on Why Hunt? handbook published by the Aldo Leopold Foundation
- Assisted with two feature articles written on WDNR Hunt for Food program, which appeared in the state's largest newspaper, The Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel

Service to Wisconsin DNR

- Served as a judge for 2018 Wisconsin wildlife stamp competition
- Provided construction assistance at Columbia County Shooting Range
- Collaborated with Sporting Heritage Council on R3 issues
- Worked closely with WDNR Upland Game Biologist on regulation and policy issues
- Attended Wisconsin Legislative Sportsmen's Caucus events
- Served on review board for WDNR Shooting Range Construction grants