requires laboratory conditions controlled to 20 + /- 1°C. Similarly, if you need a temperature less than 17°C or greater than 24°C, your laboratory needs better control over temperature. The BOD test most Wisconsin facilities would average around 29.00 inches (734 mm).