

FIND A PLACE TO HUNT

Hunt Wild Wisconsin App

The Hunt Wild Wisconsin mobile app has everything hunters need, all in one place so you can focus on what's really important - enjoying the Wisconsin outdoors. Search "Hunt Wild Wisconsin" in the iTunes app store or Google Play store on your mobile device.

FFLIGHT

The Fields and Forest Lands Interactive Gamebird Hunting Tool gives hunters an interactive summary of young aspen and alder habitat to find woodcock and ruffed grouse hunting areas, pheasant-stocked public hunting grounds and dove fields found on public hunting lands throughout Wisconsin. To learn more, visit dnr.wi.gov and search keyword "FFLIGHT."

Managed Forest and Forest Crop Law Programs

Some land enrolled in Managed Forest Law and Forest Crop Law are open to the public for hunting, fishing, hiking, cross-country skiing and sight-seeing. Hunters are encouraged to contact their local DNR Forester to learn more about these programs. To access the mapping tool, visit dnr.wi.gov and search keywords "MFL open land."

The Voluntary Public Access - Habitat Incentive program

VPA-HIP is funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture NRCS and provides financial incentives to private landowners who open their property to year-round wildlife-dependent recreation. These lands are open to public use under certain guidelines. VPA lands are displayed on interactive maps on the VPA webpage or through the PAL application. Visit dnr.wi.gov and search keyword "VPA" to learn more.

Public Access Lands Atlas

Those in search of public hunting and trapping grounds this fall are reminded to check out the department's Public Access Lands atlas. The atlas includes all DNR properties, as well as nearly all federal and county-owned lands. Hunters are reminded to contact landowners beforehand to verify that hunting is allowed on a given property. You can download and print these maps free of charge from your home computer. For more information, visit dnr.wi.gov and search keyword "atlas."

Wisconsin State Parks

Most Wisconsin state park properties have some areas open to hunting. Be sure to visit dnr.wi.gov and search keywords "hunting state parks" to find a park open to hunting near you.
